Boulder Valley Waldorf School was founded in 1993 and serves Pre-school through Eighth Grade School. We are a full WECAN member and a Developing School on the path to AWSNA membership.

Located in Niwot, Colorado, midway between Boulder and Longmont, is set on a five-acre campus within 38 acres of agricultural-zoned land. This setting provides a wonderful atmosphere for festivals and community life, and sustains an enthusiastic community of experienced teachers, devoted, hard-working parents, and a healthy, energetic student body. The region is an ideal mix of rural and urban, with farms and extensive open space giving way in one direction to the vibrant college town of Boulder and in the other direction to Longmont, rated one of the best places to live in the U.S. The area offers worldclass year-round outdoor recreation opportunities and is connected to the world by Denver International Airport.

In addition to Anthroposophical communities in Boulder and Denver, the Front Range area supports five elementary Waldorf Schools, three Waldorf high schools (two of which are near to Boulder), several independent Waldorf Kindergartens and numerous Waldorf home and day groups, plus a variety of Anthroposophically-based and Waldorf study groups and initiatives.
